The Annual Meeting of the International Trademark Association (INTA) Conference 2026, scheduled to take place in London from May 2 to May 6, is one of the most significant global gatherings in the field of intellectual property, bringing together over 10,000 professionals including trademark attorneys, in-house counsel, brand managers, policymakers, judges, and business leaders from more than 100 jurisdictions. As a not-for-profit membership association dedicated to advancing trademarks and related intellectual property as essential elements of fair and effective commerce, INTA hosts this flagship event to foster collaboration, knowledge-sharing, and industry development. The conference will feature cutting-edge discussions on emerging topics such as artificial intelligence, brand protection, IP finance, and cross-border innovation, while also offering unparalleled opportunities for networking, business development, and thought leadership in one of the world's most influential cities.

Mr. Divyendu Verma will present the table topic "One Year Later: How the Design Law Treaty (DLT) is Shaping Global Design Rights" on Monday, 04, May 2026 from 12:30 pm - 2:00 pm GMT.
